Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If you or a family member has been cited for drunk driving it is not a charge to take lightly. This is a serious matter that needs to be taken seriously. Your job, money, driving privileges, traveling, and freedom are all at stake. Every year in the US over One Million people are charged with operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol or drugs. No matter where you live, a driving under the influence (DUI) conviction is a very serious matter. Even first-time offenders are looking at time in jail and probation as well as a driver's license suspension. Drunk-driving is one of the most commonly committed crimes in the United States. As a matter of fact, 41 percent of all vehicle accidents involve alcohol and/or drugs, and 3 out of 10 people will face a drunk-driving situation during their lifetime. Drunk driving is referred to as driving under the influence (DUI) or driving while intoxicated (DWI), depending on the state in which the crime is committed. Each state is responsible for creating its own drunk-driving laws. In every state, it is against the law for people over the age of 21 to drive a motor vehicle with a blood alcohol content (BAC) of 0.08 percent or higher. Due to zero tolerance laws, minors under the age of 21 may not drive with any alcohol in their system, even if they are not impaired by alcohol. We show you how to beat the charge and better yet- How to avoid getting charged at all These secrets are known to a very select few law enforcement personnel and are never shared with the general public. Most...
