Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from No Party Now, but All for Our Country Two years have passed; uncounted sacrifices have been made - sacrifices of wealth, of blood, and limb, and life - of friendship and brotherhood, of endeared and hallowed pursuits and sacred ties - and still the civil war is raging in bitterness and heart-burning - still we make the same profession, and still we pledge ourselves firmly to hold on to our cause, and persevere in the struggle into which unrighteous men, bewildered by pride, and stimulated by bitter hatred, have plunged us. We profess ourselves to be loyal citizens of these United States; and by loyalty we mean a candid and loving devotion to the object to which a loyal man - a loyal husband, a loyal friend, a loyal citizen - devotes himself. We eschew the attenuated argument derived by trifling scholars from meagre etymology. We take the core and substance of this weighty word, and pledge ourselves that we will loyally - not merely outwardly and formally, according to the letter, but fervently and according to the spirit - adhere to our country, to her institutions, to freedom and her power, and to that great institution called the government of our country, founded by our fathers, and loved by their sons, and by all right-minded men who have become citizens of this land by choice and not by birth - who have wedded this country in the maturity of their age as verily their own. We pledge ourselves as National men, devoted to the Nationality of this great people. No government can wholly dispense with loyalty, except the fiercest despotism ruling by naked intimidation;...
