Brand New Book  Print on Demand .On November 20, 2014, President Obama delivered a televised address wherein he broadly described the steps that his administration is taking to fix what he has repeatedly described as a broken immigration system. Following the President's address, executive agencies made available intra-agency memoranda and fact sheets detailing specific actions that have already been taken, or will be taken in the future. These actions generally involve either border security, the current unlawfully present population, or future legal immigration. The most notable of these actions, for many commentators, are the initiatives to grant deferred action -one type of relief from removal-to some unlawfully present aliens who were brought to the United States as children and raised here, or who have children who are U.S. citizens or lawfully permanent resident (LPR) aliens. Previously, in June 2012, then Secretary of Homeland Security Janet Napolitano announced a program-commonly known as Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA)-whereby unlawfully present aliens who had been brought to the United States as children and met other criteria could receive deferred action and, in many cases, employment...
