THE ART OF PRAYER IN AND LEARNING THROUGH SONG FOR THE YOUNG CHRISTIAN

Xulon Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A healthy love of song and the Lord God has led to this volume. It is the author's sincere hope that others who enjoy music will come to love the Lord through the book's offerings to His glory. It is meant to aid the young Christian, whether chronologically young or recently converted to faith in Christ Jesus, explore what the Bible and the Christian Church teach so seekers' faith may become deeper and their love for the Lord greater. Vocal, guitar and piano parts have been included for every song in the volume and may be used in any combination by musicians of various skill levels in the praise and glory of God. Veronica Bergschneider has been writing poetry and music separately since the age of 15. Using those tools to prepare this volume of prayer and song has helped her deepen her own faith over the seven years of work it has taken to produce. The project began when the author's daughter, Anna, who had been baptized the previous fall, was about to celebrate her first Christmas. Hearing too many secular songs being played on the radio at the time led Veronica to want to teach Anna the true reason behind Christmas, and from there, as other celebrations and lessons of Christianity came up, they inspired teachable moments being turned to song.
