Trafford Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .As the United Nation adopted Entrepreneurship for development on December 8, 2012, Churches and states around the world cannot seem to agree how to get involved in socioeconomic development and entrepreneurship, a subject certainly bears examination. Using a qualitative approach, religious scholar, psychologist and researcher, Dr. Richard Corker-Caulker outlines the theories that have justified various social programs. He analyzes, interprets, and explains how church and state have responded to socioeconomic problems of the course of history citing concrete examples. The role of religious, political, business, educational and family institutions in economic development and entrepreneurship is examined including how religious and political institutions can develop education, constitutions, laws, program and services around human needs link to human development and prosperity for all. As you read, you ll discover- the relationship between the divine and humanity, and how this affects socioeconomic development;- why a relationship with God is important for communities;- ways to increase the chances of individual socioeconomic development;- strategies to promote social entrepreneurship in developing nations.- how to develop needs assessment- how to identify natural resources and social problems for socioeconomic development and entrepreneurship - potential for creating and starting your own job and - how personal belief can limit or increase socioeconomic development and entrepreneurship prospectIt is possible for everyone to become financially independent while adhering to biblical and spiritual principles. The solution to human problems lies in cooperation with a higher power and a willingness to use biblical principles alongside new ideas and theories to become agents of change. With this book, you ll examine the human crisis from the context of Adam and Eve, who triggered a transgenerational problem that requires more complex responses from the...
