Not illustrated. 1899 Excerpt: .now compelled to give up work altogether for some months. Millais refers to this in the following letter: --To Mr. Du Maurier. 2 Palace Gate, December 26th, 1891. Dear George, --I miss your work in Punch, and rather suspect the reason i your old trouble. I am only just recovering, and very slowly, from a severe attack of influenza; and both my wife and son John are down with it, attended by comely professional nurses, but hardly making any progress towards recovery. Peter Ibbetson, 11--18 The marriage of my daughter was a pretty boom, followed immediately by the prostration of nearly all the family except the happy lovers; and I don t know when again life will be worth living. I finished Peter Peter Ibbetson and we were all delighted with it--so original and so full of wise reflections. I care not what the professional literary critic says about it: the book displays refined taste, and is full of plums; and the illustrations are delightful. Now, dear boy, how do you like lecturing? And did you hold forth on lovely woman? I do hate speaking in public, and cannot imagine you can like it; but if it pays, well and good. Do not bother to answer this yourself. Sylvia can tell me how you are. I saw her at the wedding, and she will have told you the bridegroom was tall enough! The studio refuses to look itself again since it was converted into a jeweller...
