The established physician, as well as the established met chant, depends for his livelihood upon his reputation for fair dealing and his ability as a practitioner. TOOTH TALK. The African savages, who polish their teeth to ivory whiteness with the chewed ends of sticks, may be woefully deficient in many ways, but in their extremely careful observance of this hygienic rite they serve as examples to many civilized people. The pToper care of the teeth is quite as essential to the well being of the body as the unceasing vigilance of sentries is to a beleaguered army. The mouth gives access to infection. Unless the teeth are kept clean they will become infected and decay. Tiny particles of decomposed food remain between the teeth and create an ideal breeding ground for germs. When this condition exist these...
