The book provides a wonderful introduction to the world's most famous myths and legends, as Untermeyer brings to life Pandora, Midas, Narcissus and Echo, Jason, King Arthur, Galahad, Lancelot, and even such real people as Joan of Arc or Guy Fawkes. According to the poet Ogden Nash, "These legends and historical tales are a vital part of every child's education and it is a delight to find them told so simply and clearly." It would make a lovely gift for any child (or even any adult who feels that his knowledge of the world's greatest myths is lacking). The book measure 6 by 9 inches and contains 255 pages. Last but hardly least, the book is beautifully illustrated throughout by Mae Gerhard.
