New Zealand, it will be seen, shows a considerably larger return per acre than any of the other provinces: --Only three of the colonies are in a position to export potatoes in any quantity--Tasmania, New Zealand, and Victoria. The apparent excess in the case of South Australia arises chiefly from re-exports. The surplus in Victoria, though at one time considerable, has now very much decreased. VALUE OF POTATO CHOP. 207 The following were the imports and exports of potatoes: --The total value of the potato crop and the average return per acre for 1892-3, in the Australasian Colonies, will be found below: --HAY. Considerable quantities of wheat, oats, and barley are grown for the purpose of being converted into hay. This crop in point..
