Imagine holding history in your hands. Now you can. Digitally preserved and previously accessible only through libraries as Early English Books Online, this rare material is now available in single print editions. Thousands of books written between 1475 and 1700 can be delivered to your doorstep in individual volumes of high quality historical reproductions. The power of literary device was never more in its prime than during this period of history, where a wide array of political and religious satire mocked the status quo and poetry called humankind to transcend the rigors of daily life through love, God or principle. This series comments on historical patterns of the human condition that are still visible today. The below data was compiled from various identification fields in the bibliographic record of this title. This data is provided as an additional tool in helping to insure edition identification: In Henricum Fridericum primogenitum Iacobi ter maximi Regis Magnae Britanniae, Galliae, and amp; Hiberniae: serenissimum vero Walliae principem, morbo de hac vita decedentem Novemb. 1612 Julius, Alexander. In verse. Signatures: 2 A-B4. Running title reads: Lachrymae Alexr. Julii Scoti and conterraneorum. The first leaf is blank. 20 p. Edinburgi : Excudebat Thomas Finlason, typographus Reg.
